

_____ . The author also uses a simile to be more descriptive such as _____

example

The author uses strong word choice such as _____ to explain _____

Tier 2 word

and _____ to show _____

Tier 2 word

Throughout the chapter, the author creates a _____ mood as in when

example

The author creates this mood because _____

The chapter ends with _____ making the reader think about _____

3. What does it mean? (Explain the theme or lesson from the chapter) 2 sentences.

4. So What? (Tell how the events of the chapter relate to your own life or something you have read previously. For example, write about a time when you felt afraid. Or compare the events to something else you have read about the Holocaust. Write 3-4 sentences.)

Close and Critical Reading for Chapter 13 (Devil's Arithmetic)

Question 1: What does the author say? Write a 5-7 sentence summary of Chapter 13.

Question 2: How does the author say it? Fill in the blanks.

Fill in the blanks to analyze the author's craft in Chapter 13.. Use your book to provide specific quotes and examples from the chapter. Be specific with your examples!

The author _____ uses _____ point of view in _____ perspective. This chapter is _____ genre because the events, _____, is based on events that happened during our history. The chapter is written in _____ structure beginning with _____ example.

The author uses imagery to create a picture in the reader's mind when she writes, _____ Evidence from text _____

The author uses italics to emphasize words such as _____ and _____